

Report on National Constitution Day Date: 26.11.2025

The NSS Unit and Department of Political Science, Government Degree College, Rampachodavaram, observed National Constitution Day on 26th November 2025 with great enthusiasm and full participation from students and staff.

Program Details

The program began with floral tributes to Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's portrait, honoring the principal architect of the Indian Constitution.

The event was attended by:

- Dr. K. Vasudha, Principal
- Sri D. Ravi Kumar, Vice-Principal
- Sri K. G. Venkatesh, NSS Programme Officer
- Sri G. Manikya Rao, Lecturer in Physics
- S. Kumari, Faculty in Political Science
- Students and staf

Preamble Pledge

As part of the observance, all students, staff, and the Principal collectively recited the Preamble of the Constitution, reaffirming their commitment to the ideals of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity. The pledge created a sense of national pride and constitutional awareness among the participants.

Highlights of the Event

The Principal, Dr. K. Vasudha, addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of the Preamble, the significance of constitutional values, and the responsibility of every citizen to uphold them. Her speech encouraged students to understand and practice constitutional principles in daily life.

Seminar on “Spirituality of Indian Constitution”

A special seminar was organized with Dr. N. J. Padmakar Babu, Retired Senior Faculty in Political Science, as the resource person. His lecture on “Spirituality of Indian Constitution” provided deep insights into the moral, ethical, and philosophical foundations of the Constitution.

Student Activities

To mark the occasion, several competitions and activities were conducted:

- Poster Presentation Competition

- Offline Quiz Competition
- Participation in the National Constitution Day Quiz on My Bharat Portal

Students actively participated with great enthusiasm, showcasing creativity and constitutional awareness.

Conclusion

The National Constitution Day celebrations at Government Degree College, Rampachodavaram were conducted successfully, promoting constitutional literacy and civic responsibility among students. The joint efforts of the NSS Unit, Political Science Department, faculty members, and enthusiastic students made the program meaningful and impactful.

K G VENKATESH
PROGRAM OFFICER
NSS UNIT,
GDC RAMPACHODAVARAM