

"My Menstruation - My Pride"

11-11-2024

The Women Empowerment Cell at Government Degree College, Rampachodavaram, recently organized an insightful and empowering session titled "My Menstruation - My Pride", aimed at educating and empowering girl students on menstrual health. This event was initiated by the college principal, Dr. K. Vasudha, who emphasized the importance of such topics for the well-being and confidence of the students. Ms. Nitya Chowdary from Unicharm India served as the presenter, bringing her expertise and compassionate approach to this important subject. The "My Menstruation - My Pride" event, presented by Ms. Nitya Chowdary from Unicharm India, was a significant success. The initiative by Dr. K. Vasudha and the Women Empowerment Cell demonstrates the college's dedication to promoting health awareness and empowerment among its girl students. This event has not only educated but also inspired students to pride and dignity.
