

NATIONAL VOTERS' DAY PROGRAMME REPORT

INTRODUCTION

The Department of Political Science successfully organized National Voters' Day on 24 January 2026 with the objective of creating awareness among students about the importance of voting and democratic participation. The programme was conducted under the able guidance and encouragement of Principal Sri D. Ravi Kumar, whose leadership inspired active participation from students and staff.

VOTERS' DAY PLEDGE

As part of National Voters' Day celebrations, a Voters' Day Pledge was administered to the students and staff. The pledge emphasized the importance of ethical voting, participation in elections without fear or inducement, and upholding democratic values. All participants took the pledge with a sense of responsibility and commitment towards strengthening democracy.

ESSAY WRITING COMPETITION

An Essay Writing Competition was conducted for the students on themes related to democracy, the importance of voting, and the role of youth in elections. Students participated enthusiastically and expressed their views on responsible voting and democratic values. The competition helped improve students' analytical thinking and writing skills.

RANGOLI COMPETITION

A Rangoli Competition was organized with voter awareness themes such as “My Vote – My Right” and “Strong Democracy through Voting.” Students showcased their creativity and conveyed strong messages about democracy and electoral participation through colorful and meaningful designs.

GIFTS AND PRIZES DISTRIBUTION

At the end of the programme, prizes and gifts were distributed to the winners of the Essay Writing and Rangoli competitions. Certificates of appreciation were also given to encourage all participants. The distribution of prizes motivated students and recognized their efforts and talents.

CONCLUSION

The National Voters' Day programme held on 24 January 2026 was a great success. Through essay writing, rangoli competition, and prize distribution, the programme effectively promoted voter awareness and democratic values among students. The Department of Political Science extends its gratitude to the Principal, faculty members, and students for their cooperation and support in making the programme meaningful and successful.
