

NEWSLETTER

Government Degree College - Ramapachodavaram

03.01.2022 (Monday)

National Women's Teachers Day

To commemorate the services of the first female teacher in India, birth anniversary of Savithri Bai Phule was celebrated on National Women's Teachers Day. She relentlessly strived to educate girls belonging to the lower strata of the society. The students and staff of the Government Degree College, Rampachodavaram, have paid rich homage to her and remembered her services as a women's right activist.

07.01.2022 (Friday)

Rangoli competition

On the eve of Sankranti celebrations, Government Degree College, Rampachodavaram had organised Rangoli fest for the students. Invitations were sent to schools and colleges located in the town seeking their participation. Students comprising 29 teams have participated in the competition with enthusiasm. Three-men committee had inspected rangolis and selected the winners. Cash prizes were awarded for the winning teams. First place was bagged by D.Ed college team and Rs 500 awarded as a cash prize followed by GDC Rampachodavaram and won Rs 300 as a cash reward. Even, the third prize was also won by GDC Rampachodavaram with Rs 100 as a cash prize. GDC Rampachodavaram Principal Dr. V. Srinivas Rao garu had distributed prizes to winners.

NEWSLETTER

Government Degree College - Ramapachodavaram

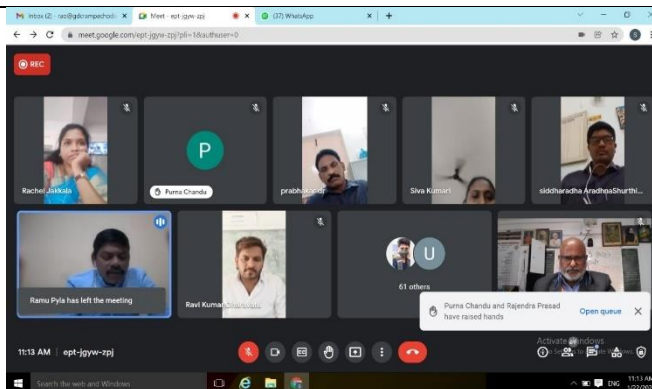

22.01.2022
(Saturday)

History national webinar – History and its career value

The Department of History, GDC Rampachodavaram, organised a national webinar on the theme “History and its Career Value” with the objective of career importance of History. The resource person for the webinar was Dr. H.K. Sulaiman Khan, Assistant Professor in History, C. Abdul Hakeem College at Melvishram in Vellore district in Tamil Nadu. The programme started with opening remarks of Regional Joint Director Dr Ch. Krishna garu and GDC Rampachodavaram Principal Dr. V. Srinivas Rao garu, followed by welcoming address from convenor J.S. Suneetha, Lecturer in History.

Dr. Khan in his presentation emphasised on importance of History in present competitive world. He also referred some books for the preparation of competitive exams such as Groups and Civils. During his presentation, he also focused on different types of employment opportunities available for young history graduates in India as well as abroad. After his presentation, participants interacted with the resource person. He explained the relevance of History in shaping the career of young graduates. The programme concluded with vote of thanks by English lecturer S.R.B. Chakravarthy.

25.01.2022
(Tuesday)

National Voters' Day

On the occasion of National Voter's Day, the Department of Political Science organised a programme at GDC Rampachodavaram on Tuesday (25.01.2022). College Principal Dr. V. Srinivas Rao garu had encouraged all the students to enroll their names in the voters' list in their constituency. He stressed on the need for students casting their votes during elections. All the participants took an oath on the occasion. The oath was administered by Dr. K. Prabhakar garu Lecturer in Economics. Other teaching and non-teaching staff were also present.

NEWSLETTER

Government Degree College - Ramapachodavaram

31.01.2022
(Monday)

RJD visit to GDC Rampachodavaram

Regional Joint Director (RJD) Dr Ch. Krishna garu had visited Government Degree College, Rampachodavaram on Monday (31.01.2022) and interacted with students and gave valuable suggestions to them. He guided students as to how to overcome problems in academics and achieve success. The RJD inspected the record books of staff members and interacted with teaching and non-teaching faculty. Principal Dr. V. Srinivas Rao garu had accompanied the RJD during latter's college visit.